

Sports Director

One of WIQH's specialties is covering CCHS sports action. The Sports Director coordinates our coverage—live play by play and sports reporting after the fact. (S)he also helps create and coordinate regular sports talk shows and all other sports-related programming.

Things You'll HAVE To Do:

- Prior to the start of each sports season, decide what games WIQH will broadcast
- Recruit and select announcers and producers for each live sports broadcast
- Make arrangements with opposing team coaches and schools to get rosters, away game broadcast permission and press box space
- Help to train interested members to be sportscasters
- Keep in constant communication with CCHS's Athletic Director about schedules and things
- Prepare Show Logs for several weeks of the year
- Attend regular managers meetings

Optional Things You Can Choose To Do:

- Create regular sports updates on WIQH and train others to do the same
- Work with coaches and players to set up interviews
- Actually announce some games yourself
- Produce promos for WIQH sports broadcasts
- Add new and different sports programming to WIQH's schedule
- Supervise and critique sports broadcasts to help improve them

Personal qualities you will need:

- Willing and able to devote 5 - 10 hours per week to the station every week, much of it actually AT the station
- Very comfortable spending time contacting and scheduling sports announcers
- A solid knowledge of sports in general with a strong interest in a wide variety of sports
- Very well organized
- Good at getting things done ahead of time
- Detail oriented
- Enjoys creative writing and good at commenting on sporting events

There's a fair amount of scheduling work (games, announcers, etc.) required of this job. There's also unlimited opportunity to be creative and add immensely to the quality of WIQH's sports programming.

The current Sports Directors (there are two this year) are Mihir Singh, '20, and Emily Sheehan, '20. You might want to talk to them – or Ned Roos or Jonathan Northridge – about this job if you want to apply for it.
